

Phrases for discussion

Pair work and group work

- Do you agree?
- Do you think so?
- Can we use this word?
- We can use this word.
- You can use this word to describe (the fireworks).
- Yes, you're right.
- I agree with you.
- I agree because (everyone enjoys singing).
- That's a good idea.
- I don't agree.
- I disagree. I think (Little Red Hen is rude).
- I don't think so.
- I don't think it's right.
- (Karaoke) is a better idea.
- What's the meaning of (giant)?
- What does (rowing a boat) mean?
- What is (a dwarf)?
- How do you spell (kangaroo)?
- Can/ could you spell (James), please?
- How do you say that in English?
- Can you say it again, please?
- What can we do?
- Any suggestions?
- How about (dancing)?
- What about (dancing)?
- Let's call him (Bobby).
- Shall we write down our ideas?
- We can ask (Miss Wong).
- Shall we ask (Miss. Wong)?
- It's my turn.
- Your turn, please.
- Whose turn is it?
- How clever you are!
- What an interesting game!

Stating your views

- I think ...
- I believe ...
- *Support your views by adding examples
(For example, ...)*

Agreeing

- Yes.
- I agree.
- I agree with you, but ... (partly agree)
- I think you're right.
- I think it is a good idea!
- That sounds great!

 Further elaborate your ideas. (...because..)*

Disagreeing

- I am afraid I can't agree with you because...
- I see what you mean, but ...
- I have another idea.

 Add the reasons why you disagree (...because...)*

Asking for opinions

- What do you think?
- What is your opinion?
- Do you have any suggestion?
- Would you mind sharing your ideas?

Conclusion / Reflection

- Overall, ...
- In conclusion, ...
- I learn more about ...
- Before discussing with my friends, I thought.... Now, I think ...